THE MARRIAGE REGISTRATION BETWEEN AN IRANIAN WOMAN AND A MAN OF FOREIGN NATIONALITY

The following documents should be submitted to this office for proper registration of marriage:

- 1- The wife's original new Iranian Birth Certificate (Shenasnameh) and her original passport.
 - 2- The husband's original Birth Certificate (Long Form) and a notarized copy of first four pages of his passport.
 - 3- A written notarized consent of marriage by the bride's father in Farsi is required if this is the bride's first marriage. The father's letter of consent should be notarized in Iran. If he resides outside of Iran, a copy of first (8) pages of his passport should be submitted in addition to his letter of consent. A copy of the father's death certificate is required if deceased.
 - 4- A certificate of declaration of Islamic faith by the husband is required if the woman is a Muslim.
 - 5- The original Islamic marriage certificate can be obtained from a mosque or Islamic center. The certificate should include the signatures of the wife, husband, two witnesses, and the person who has performed the marriage ceremony.
 - 6- Original marriage license. If the marriage license was issued in a country other than the U.S., its authenticity must be verified by the Embassy of that country and if not in English, it must be translated and verified by the Embassy.
 - 7- A U.S. Police Clearance Report showing no criminal record for the husband.
 - 8- Ten (10) identical photographs of the wife and ten (10) identical photographs of the husband. Women are required to take their photographs with Islamic Hijab (modest clothing with scarf).
 - 9- A letter from the Health Department, Division of Vital Statistics of the State where your marriage is registered, to state "unmarried" status at the time of your current marriage. If obtaining such a letter is not possible, the wife should complete the attached form # 414.
 - 10- Completion of the attached form # 412-A.
 - 11- Photocopy of Iranian national ID (Karte melli) or passport of two of witnesses.
 - 12- Completion of the attached form # 413-B pledging you are not married to anyone except present (only one) spouse.
 - 13- The completed form # 1.
 - 14- Registration fee, (Please see "Table of fee for consulate services "form # 600 column 14) Vital Statistics Dept.
- In person registration of marriage is not processed on the same day and after processing will be mailed to the applicant's address.
